Ordering title insurance is about to get really easy

New Smart Order Form now available for residential and commercial transactions

In keeping with our tradition of developing innovative technology to support our clients, Stewart Title is pleased to announce the launch of our Smart Order Form as an alternative to placing orders by phone, fax or email.

We've called our new form "smart" because it is intuitive. Based on the transaction information you enter, the Smart Order Form evolves to ask only those questions relevant to your order – simplifying the ordering process.

Our Smart Order Form is a first for the Canadian title insurance industry and, together with our NextSTEPS technology, one more way we support the legal professionals who count on us to make obtaining title insurance as quick, easy and efficient as possible.

Features include:

- ✓ One form applicable for all residential and commercial orders
- ✓ Completely online and paperless ordering – no manual forms or faxing required
- ✓ Supporting documents can be attached easily when the order form is submitted
- ✓ Intuitive order form displays only those questions relevant to your transaction
- ✓ Once started in your browser, the form can be completed at your convenience
- ✓ Access to our most up-to-date requirements, no need to worry about using an outdated form
